

2010 KILCOY SHOW DATE CHANGE

At a meeting last Monday night, Queensland Chamber of Agricultural Societies sanctioned a request from Kilcoy Show Society to move the 2010 Kilcoy Country Show to Friday 23rd April and Saturday 24th April.

The Royal Agricultural Society (Toowoomba) had been allocated the same dates as Kilcoy next year and consequently the members of Kilcoy Show Society voted to request the change. This change will allow competitors, exhibitors, trade vendors and patrons to visit the Toowoomba Show and then participate in the Kilcoy Show the following week.

Cr Graeme Lehmann, Mayor of Somerset Regional Council, said, "The Kilcoy Show has been rejuvenated over the past few years and continues to grow in popularity with both patrons and exhibitors alike. It is surely a 'must see' event on the Somerset Region's event calendar. All businesses, community groups and residents in the Somerset Region and surrounding areas should to note this change of date for Kilcoy, and we encourage everyone to get involved in and support our Somerset Region's Agricultural Shows - Kilcoy, Esk, Toogoolawah and Lowood - each one focusing on their local districts whilst providing an opportunity to showcase the Somerset Region as a whole - its people and its lifestyle.
